

CARTER EVERAGE
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Carter Everage, of Milan, Indiana, USA, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 56th annual convention held in Miami, Florida, USA, July, 1973.

Past Director Everage is a retired university professor.

A Lion since 1950, Past Director Everage is a member of the Versailles Lions Club and has recorded more than 40 years of perfect attendance. He has held many offices, including club president and district governor.

For his many contributions to the association, Past Director Everage has received the 100% District Governor Award, nine International President's Awards, a Leadership Award and the Ambassador of Goodwill Award, the highest honor granted to a member by the association. He is also a Melvin Jones Fellow.

Past Director Everage is also a farmer and has received the Outstanding Farmer Award from the American Forage Council and the Meritorious Service Award from the Purdue Agricultural Alumni Association. He is also a member of the Soil Conservation Society of America.

Past Director Everage and his wife, Grace, have one son, three daughters, 11 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.