

LUIS “KIKO” GUERRERO CARRASCO PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Luis “Kiko” Guerrero Carrasco of Guayaquil, Ecuador, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association’s 88th International Convention, held in Hong Kong, June 27-July 1, 2005.

Past Director Carrasco is a general contractor and publicist.

A member of the Guayaquil Albonoreste Lions Club, Past Director Carrasco has held many offices within the association, including club president, zone chair, council chair and district governor. Additionally, he is a permanent board member of the Forum of Latin America and the Caribbean (FOLAC).

In recognition of his service to the association he has received numerous awards, including the two 100% Club President’s Awards, the club Lion of the Year Award and three Presidential Medals. Past Director Carrasco has perfect attendance and received a plaque for his involvement with FOLAC. He is also a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.

In addition to his Lion activities, Past Director Carrasco is active in numerous professional and community organizations. He is currently the executive administrator of the Lions Medical Center and CEO of Artesania-Asociacion Urense. He is the founder of the Ecuadorian American Chamber of Commerce and a recipient of the National Congress of Ecuador Medal.

Past Director Carrasco and his wife, Esther Hidalgo de Guerrero, also a member of the Guayaquil Albonoreste Lions Club, have two children and two grandchildren.

R-06/05