

SHOICHI SAKAGUCHI
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Shoichi Sakaguchi, of Yamato-Takada City, Japan, was elected to serve as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the 1982 Boston/Cambridge, Massachusetts, USA, board meeting.

Past Director Sakaguchi is a medical doctor.

A charter member of the Yamato-Takada Lions Club, Past Director Sakaguchi has served as club president, zone chairman and district governor.

Past Director Sakaguchi has received various awards for his service to the association, including the International President's Award and the 100% District Governor Award. He is also a Melvin Jones Fellow.

Past Director Sakaguchi is currently serving as a member of the Public Safety Committee of Nara Prefecture.

Past Director Sakaguchi and his wife, Hideko, have four children.