

SERGIO MAGGI
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Sergio Maggi of Bari, Italy, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 87th International Convention, held in Detroit, Michigan, USA/Windsor, Ontario, Canada, July 5-9, 2004.

Past Director Maggi is doctor of internal medicine.

A member of the Bari Aragonese Lions Club since 1980, Past Director Maggi has held many offices within the association, including club president, region chair, zone chair, vice district governor, district governor and multiple district international relations committee chair. Additionally he has served as coordinator of The Mediterranean Lions Observatory and speaker for two European forums and a Mediterranean conference.

In recognition of his service to the association he has received numerous awards, including the 100% Club President's Extension Award, seven district governor's appreciation awards, the Governor Extension Award, International President's Appreciation Award, District Governor Excellence Award and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor bestowed upon association members. He is also a Melvin Jones Fellow.

Past Director Maggi and his wife, Anna, a member of the Bari Bona Sforza Lions Club, have three children and two grandchildren.

R-05/06