

HOWARD STALLINGS
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Howard Stallings, of Oxford, North Carolina, USA, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 74th International Convention, held in Brisbane, Queensland, Australia, June 18-21, 1991.

Past Director Stallings is a retired educator.

A member of the Oxford Lions Club, Past Director Stallings has been a Lion since 1953. He has held many offices in the association, including club president and district governor. Past Director Stallings is also actively involved with the North Carolina Lions Foundation.

Past Director Stallings has received many awards for his contributions to the association, including the 100% Club President Award, the 100% District Governor Award, three International President's Awards, two Extension Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor granted to a member by the association. He is also a Key Member and a Melvin Jones Fellow.

Active in the community, Past Director Stallings is the past director of the North Carolina Eye and Tissue Bank and a past member of the board of directors of the North Carolina Boys and Girls Homes.

Past Director Stallings and his wife, Emma, have three sons.