

PHIL W. STERKER
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Phil W. Sterker, of Basalt, Colorado, USA, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 54th International Convention, held in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA, June 1971.

Past Director Sterker is a retired contractor.

Past Director Sterker is a Life Member of the Basalt Lions Club and has recorded perfect attendance since 1959. He has served two terms as a zone chairman and was district governor and chairman of the State Council. He has also served as chairman of several state committees, including president of the Colorado Lions Foundation and state convention chairman. Past Director Sterker was also a presenter, moderator and a member of the Planning Committee for the USA/Canada Forum.

For his efforts on behalf of the association, Past Director Sterker has received a Senior Master Key Award, two Extension Awards, a 100% District Governor Award, nine International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor the association can bestow upon a member. He is also a Melvin Jones Fellow.

Past Director Sterker and his wife, Sandi, have five children and eight grandchildren.