

HOWARD TOWNS
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Howard Towns, of Lake Wales, Florida, USA, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 57th International Convention, held in San Francisco, California, USA, July 3-6 1974.

Past Director Towns is a wholesale petroleum jobber and a member of the National Oil Jobbers Association and the Florida Oil Marketers.

A Lion since 1950, he has held many offices on the club and district level, including district governor. He has also served as the Peach Bowl's managing director.

In recognition of his contributions to the association, Past Director Towns has received numerous awards, including the 100% District Governor Award, seven International President's Awards, an Extension Award and is a Key Member. He is also a recipient of the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor awarded by the association to its members.

Active in community affairs, Past Director Towns is a Sunday school teacher, the sponsor of a Little League team and a Boy Scout leader. He has also been active in his local Chamber of Commerce and has received special recognition for his efforts from the city of Lake Wales.

Past Director Towns and his wife, Marian, have two children.