

ROSANE T. JAHNKE VAILATTI
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Rosane T. Jahnke Vailatti, lives in the city of Penha, in the State of Santa Catarina, Brazil. She was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 91st International Convention, held in Bangkok, Thailand, June 23-27, 2008.

Past Director Vailatti was a teacher, is a lawyer and presided a governmental foundation that regulates all policy related to special education in her state. She is also the owner of a hotel in Brazil.

A member of the Jaraguá do Sul Lions Club and a Lion since 1991, Past Director Vailatti has held many offices within the association, including club president, district governor and council chairperson.

In recognition of her service to the association, Past Director Vailatti has received numerous awards, including the 100% Club President Award, the 100% District Governor Award, and International President's medals. She is a Melvin Jones Fellow and a Helen Keller Knight of Sight.

In addition to her Lions activities, Past Director Vailatti has been active in numerous professional and community organizations. She is president of the Federation of Families and Friends of Children with Special Needs and has served as president of the Association of Women Against Cancer.

Past Director Vailatti and her husband, Osmar José, also a Lion and Melvin Jones Fellow, have three children and one grandchild