Convention Call

In compliance with Article VI, Section 2 of the International By-Laws, I hereby issue the Official Call for the 2018 International Convention. Our 101st International Convention will be held in Las Vegas, Nevada, United States. It begins at 9 a.m. June 29 and ends July 3. The purpose of the convention is to elect a president, first vice president, second vice president, third vice president and 17 members of the International Board of Directors and to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

Vegas is a city like no other. It is so much more than the bright lights and casinos it's so well-known for. You can watch the sun rise over Red Rock Canyon, take a boat ride on Lake Mead, tour any of the many museums, or visit one of the award-winning restaurants.

The five convention days will feature renowned speakers, first-class entertainers, and, of course, Lions' convention traditions such as the grand parade, the swearing-in of the new international president and three plenary sessions that demonstrate the amazing range and scope of Lions' service. President George W. Bush and Dr. Sanjay Gupta are two of our special guest speakers.

Convention Week is a wonderful experience packed with fellowship, fun and learning. Come spend time with fellow Lions, participate in one of the campfire sessions, and become inspired for another year of service.

Signed by me in Oak Brook, Illinois, United States of America, this 1st day of May 2018.

Naresh Aggarwal
International President
