

Leo Spotlight on Children Recognition Application

Spotlight on Children is the international service project of the Leo Club Program. These projects aid children in adverse circumstances and restore dignity with the promise of a brighter tomorrow. Leo clubs that plan and implement Spotlight on Children projects are eligible to receive a banner patch and Leos who support the project may receive an individual certificate of recognition. Please note, this recognition is limited to once per fiscal year and this project cannot be submitted for the Serving Together Application. Awards are sent to the Leo club advisor.
