New Member Induction Ceremonies

New Member Induction Ceremonies

The Induction Ceremony is the symbolic beginning to a member's service as a Lion. It is also a key element in the lifelong retention of a member. A thoughtful induction, followed by a thorough orientation and meaningful involvement in the club's activities will keep a new member interested and engaged in the club.

As with any thoughtful action, induction ceremonies require proper preparation in order to be meaningful for the most important person attending - the member being inducted.

Follow these steps to be sure that you are prepared to induct your new member:

- 1) Ensure that the New Member Kit is current. You can get these kits from your District Governor as well as from Club Supplies. Kits do change from year to year, so please have the current kit ready for your new member.
- 2) Prepare the certificates in the kit. There are two certificates in the kit. One for the new member and one for the sponsor. Ensure that the certificates are neatly filled out, names correctly spelled, and duly signed.
- 3) Separate the Sponsor materials from the New Member materials. In the new member kit, the sponsor receives a certificate as well as a special sponsor pin. Be sure that these items are not in the kit at the end of the ceremony when the new member is presented with the kit.
- 4) Ensure that the new member has completed the New Member Questionnaire. This questionnaire can be found in the Just Ask! New Member Recruiting Guide. This questionnaire will allow you to capture some information about your new member.
- 5) Prepare the wording of the ceremony. While this guide has suggested wording, use the information you have about your new member to modify the wording where appropriate to illustrate how the new member is a good fit in your club, and how your club is a good fit for what they want to do.

While it is customary for the club president to induct new members, it is certainly appropriate to have a former international or district officer, the Membership Committee chairperson or a well-respected senior Lion conduct the ceremony.

Induction Ceremonies will vary depending on local customs or activities of the club and district. Also, it is acceptable and encouraged to adapt the New Member Induction Ceremony to the affiliate membership category. When planning the ceremony, it is important to keep in mind that it should be dignified and meaningful for the participants.

Following are some ideas for creating an appropriate and meaningful Induction Ceremony, as well as suggested wording for the presentation.

Suggested Ceremony Order

1. Begin by inviting each new member and their sponsor individually by name to the front of the room.
2. Welcome all the participants to the ceremony and share your joy for their attendance.
3. Give a brief history of the distinguished history of Lions Clubs International.
4. Present a short history about your club and its current activities.
5. Administer the pledge.
6. Present the pin.
7. Close the ceremony with a welcoming statement on behalf of your club and district, the presentation of a new member kit and an explanation of the sponsor's responsibilities.

Suggested Presentation Wording

Following is suggested wording for the different facets of the Induction Ceremony as described in the Suggested Ceremony Order above. Feel free to change the wording as necessary to reflect local customs, add further information, reflect the presenter's communication style and most importantly, to personalize it to the new member or members you are inducting, so it is meaningful to them.

1) Call to Order

We are about to begin our New Member Induction Ceremony, in which we will induct _____ new members into our club. At this time, I would like to call each of the new members and their sponsors. As their names are called, will the sponsors and new members please rise and come forward. Please hold your applause until all the names are announced. Thank you. (Insert new member names and sponsor names.)

2) Welcome

Ladies and gentlemen, on behalf of the officers and members of the _____ Lions Club, I want to express our sincere pleasure at your presence at this meeting. You have been invited to become members and we are all extremely proud that you have accepted membership in our club and Lions Clubs International. Membership in a Lions club is a privilege. You have joined the world's largest and most active service club organization; a group of over 1.4 million men and women in over 48,000 clubs in over 200 countries and geographical areas around the globe, who are dedicated to making a difference. Through your membership, you will help our club reach out to people in need in our community, and throughout the world.

3) Lions Clubs International History

You are becoming part of a distinguished service history that dates back to 1917, when Lions Clubs International began as the dream of Chicago insurance man Melvin Jones. He believed that local business clubs should expand their horizons from purely professional concerns to the betterment of their communities and the world at large.

Jones' own group, the Business Circle of Chicago, agreed. After contacting similar groups around the country, an organizational meeting was held on June 7, 1917, at the LaSalle Hotel in Chicago, Illinois, USA. The new group took the name of one of the groups invited, the "Association of Lions Clubs," and a national convention was held in Dallas, Texas, USA in October of that year. Thirty-six delegates representing 22 clubs from nine states were in attendance. The convention began to define what the association was to become. A constitution, by-laws, objects and code of ethics were approved.

Since that humble beginning, Lions club members have volunteered their time and talents to meet needs wherever they exist. Lions are especially dedicated to serving the blind and visually impaired, a commitment made after Helen Keller challenged our members to become her "knights of the blind in the crusade against darkness" during the 1925 convention in Cedar Point, Ohio, USA. Our motto, "We Serve" perfectly exemplifies the dedication to helping those in need felt by Lions worldwide. Your membership in the _____ Lions Club will help us carry on this tradition of service for many years to come.
