

KARL R. ADAMSON
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Karl R. Adamson, of Tekamah, Nebraska, USA, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 75th International Convention, held in Hong Kong, June 23-26, 1992.

A Lion and member of the Tekamah Lions Club since 1976, Past Director Adamson has held many positions within the association, including club president, district governor and council chairman. He served as chairman of the Nebraska Lions Foundation and was director of the Nebraska Lions Eye Bank. He is past general chairman of the USA/Canada Lions Leadership Forum and currently serves on that committee as secretary.

Past Director Adamson has received numerous awards in recognition of his service to the association, including the 100% District Governor Award, Leadership Awards, a Master Key, International Certificates of Appreciation, International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor the association grants its members. He is also a Melvin Jones Fellow.

Past Director Adamson and his wife, Sharon, have two daughters.