

KENNETH ELLIOT JONES
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Kenneth Elliot Jones, of Hamilton, New Zealand, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 69th annual convention, held in New Orleans, Louisiana, USA, July 9-12, 1986.

Past Director Jones is a former farmer and is chairman of a grain co-operative.

Active in the association since joining in 1970, Past Director Jones has served as a club president, zone chairman, cabinet chairman, district governor and council chairman. In honor of his contributions, he has received the 100% District Governor Award, the District Governor Extension Award, the International President's Commendation Award, four International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor granted to a member by the association. He is also a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.

Past Director Jones is the current chairman of the Lloyd Morgan Lions Clubs Charitable Trust.

Past Director Jones and his wife, Margaret, have one daughter, two sons and three grandchildren.