

HUGH REARDON
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Hugh Reardon, of Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 62nd International Convention, held in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, June 1979.

A retired railroad official, Past Director Reardon is a former claims prevention officer, labor relations officer and research analyst with the Canadian National Railway.

A member of the Moncton Lions Club since 1958, Past Director Reardon has served as club president, zone chairman, deputy district governor, district governor and treasurer.

In recognition of his service to the association, he has received a 100% President's Award, a Membership Development Award, a 100% District Governor's Award, a District Governor's Extension Award, three International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor bestowed upon association members. He was also named Lion of the Year by both his club and district.

In addition to his Lion activities, Past Director Reardon is a former member of the Court of Referees of the Unemployment Insurance Commission, was chairman of the Financial Campaign of Adult Services Workshop on Behalf of the Council for Cerebral Palsy and Mentally Retarded Children, Inc. and was declared an honored citizen of Moncton.

He and his wife, Florence, have two children.