

BOJAN SOBER
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Bojan Sober, from Rijeka, Croatia, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 91st International Convention, held in Bangkok, Thailand, June 23-27, 2008.

Past Director Sober is a professional opera singer and general manager of the Festival Opatija Opera House.

A member of the Rijeka Lions Club and a Lion since 1994, Past Director Sober has held many offices within the association, including club president, zone chairperson, region chairperson, vice district governor and district governor. He also serves as a Coordinating Lion for Bosnia and Herzegovina.

In recognition of his service to the association, Past Director Sober has received numerous awards, including the Club President award, the 100% Club President award, two Guiding Lion awards, four International President's Certificates of Appreciation, three International President's Leadership Medals and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor the association grants its members. He is a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.

Past Director Sober is also the recipient of the Milka Trnina Music Award and the Order of Danica, Croatia's highest state award for cultural merit.

Past Director Sober and his wife, Past District Governor Olga, also a Lion and Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow, have three daughters.