F. Indemnity Agreement

With the affixed signature, I/We the parent(s)/guardian(s) give permission for this youth to travel and remain at an approved place for a specified period of living in a Lions approved home or Lions camp. I/We agree to relieve any Lions member or host family, Lions Club, Lions District/Multiple District or Lions International of any financial or other responsibility in the case of their illness, death, legal or moral irresponsibility, and to indemnify them in respect of any expenses incurred.

We also agree that the youth will not be permitted to drive a motor vehicle while away under this Youth Camps and Exchange Program. The youth will return to their home at the completion of the exchange, unless I/We send written permission, financial means and designate where else they are to go. In such instances the Lions supervision will cease when the youth leaves the Lions host or the Lions camp. I/We further agree that the rules of the program will be complied with by us. In the case of violation of the rules, I/We understand that the youth will be returned to their home at their own expense. I/We the parent(s)/guardian(s) give legal consent for the Lions hosting our youth to give them any immediate medical treatment, including surgical emergencies, as prescribed by a fully qualified doctor, when time does not permit the obtaining of consent by me/us. Furthermore, I certify that the applicant will be sufficiently insured to cover any and all contingencies, including repatriate, accident, medical, personal effects and personal liability during the entire duration of the applicant's travel and visit in the accepted country.
