

Sheltered in – Reaching out

Keeping clubs healthy and fit for service

Presenters for the Call

- Peggy Oyama- President of the Hawaii Cyber Lions Club
- Rich Marsoun- Engagement Program Specialist with LCI

Lions Clubs International

Closing the Distance with Technology

Now more than ever, communication is so important. Clubs all over the world are finding new ways to communicate with members and their communities.

The following three resources can help you stay connected:

- Story Telling
- Social Media
- Virtual Meeting

How to meet Virtually

Lions Clubs have been meeting virtually since April 1990. Below are the top virtual platforms used in each constitutional area:

Constitutional Area	Virtual Platform
CA 1- USA	Zoom
CA 2- Canada	Zoom
CA 3- Latin America	What's App
CA 4- Europa	Go To Meeting
CA 5- Orient & South East Asia	Facebook Messenger
CA 6- India, South Asia, Middle East	Conference Calls
CA 7- Australia, New Zealand, Indonesia	Zoom
CA 8- Africa	Skype
LEO CLUBS	What's App

A background image showing a medical professional in a white lab coat examining an elderly patient's eye using a large ophthalmological instrument. Another person is partially visible in the foreground, looking towards the patient.

Tips for Virtual Meetings

- How to take votes on club matters
 - Google forms: <https://www.google.com/forms/about/>
- Pick the platform that is the best for the size of your club
- Invites, tutorials, technical support

Lions Clubs International

Open Discussion

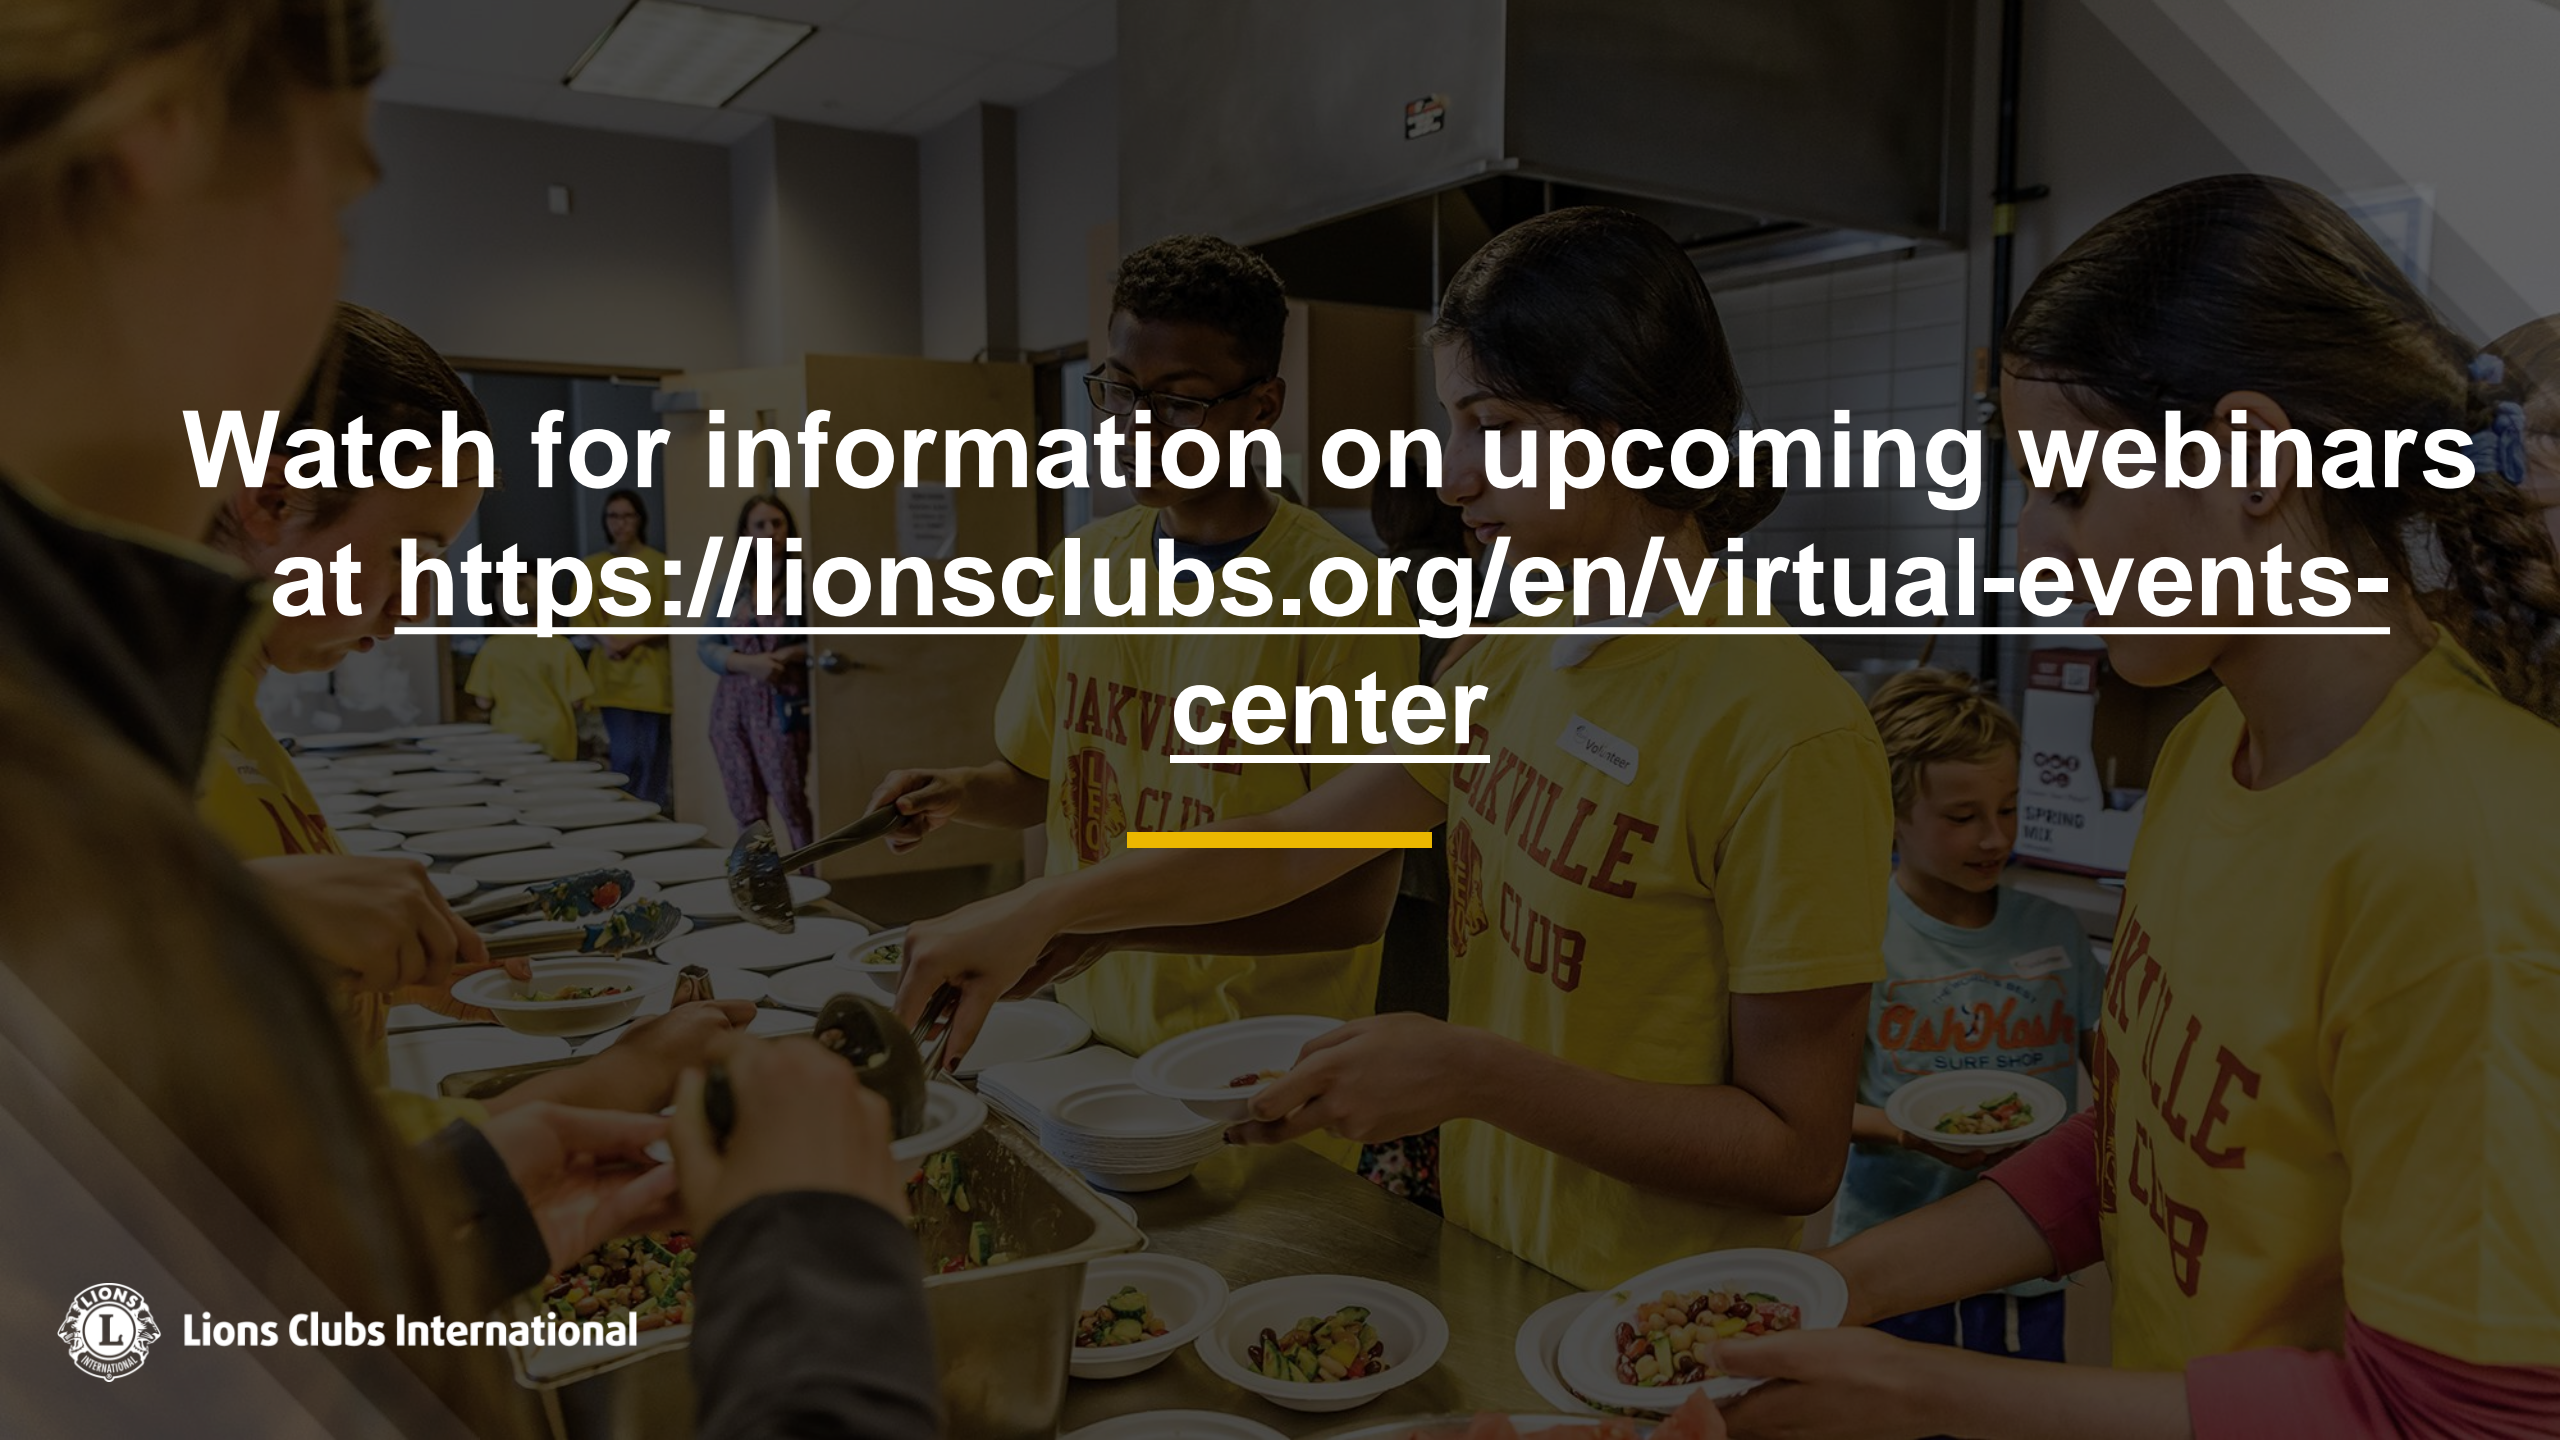

Lions Clubs International

Lions vs. H

Lions Clubs Inter

A group of young people, likely members of a Lions Club, are shown in a kitchen or community center setting, serving food. They are wearing yellow t-shirts with "JACKSONVILLE CLUB" printed on them. They are standing behind a long table covered with white plates and bowls of food, including a large salad. The scene is brightly lit, and the atmosphere appears to be one of community service.

Watch for information on upcoming webinars at https://lionsclubs.org/en/virtual-events-center

Lions Clubs International

A group of young people, mostly wearing yellow t-shirts with "OKVILLE CLUB" printed on them, are serving food at a long table. They are in a kitchen or community hall setting. The text "Thank you!" is overlaid in white, bold font, with a yellow horizontal line underneath it.

Thank you!

membership@lionsclubs.org

Lions Clubs International