

TEST FOR CERTIFIED GUIDING LION

1. Can the Certified Guiding Lion choose the club he/she wants to guide, once they are certified?
 - ☐ No, the governor appoints the Certified Guiding Lion
 - ☐ Yes, the Guiding Lion may choose the club
 - ☐ Yes, if the club is in the Certified Guiding Lions' district
2. Does the Certified Guiding Lion need to attend all the meetings of the club?
 - ☐ Yes, majority of club's general and board meetings for two years
 - ☐ Yes, must attend meetings for the first six months
 - ☐ No, must attend the board meetings only
3. Should the officers of the club participate in zone and district leadership training?
 - ☐ Yes, it's highly recommended
 - ☐ No, the Certified Guiding Lion provides all leadership training
 - ☐ Yes, but only in the second year of the club
4. Who determines the projects the club supports?
 - ☐ The club members determine what they feel is important for their community
 - ☐ The Certified Guiding Lion MUST chose the appropriate project for the club
 - ☐ The club must support LCIF before anything else
5. Should the Certified Guiding Lion nominate mentors for the officers of the club?
 - ☐ Yes, so each officer is trained by an experienced officer with the most current information
 - ☐ No, all the training should be done by the Certified Guiding Lion
 - ☐ Only after one year and if the officers are not performing their jobs well
6. Should the Certified Guiding Lion discuss recruitment and retention during the training sessions?
 - ☐ No, it's not a problem for a new club
 - ☐ Only after a year and if a club is losing membership
 - ☐ Yes, it's important
7. Is it necessary to explain how to host productive and meaningful club meetings?
 - ☐ No, they are adults, they should know
 - ☐ Only if you see that the attendance is low
 - ☐ Yes, it is key to continued participation
8. How many club officer training sessions are recommended?
 - ☐ If they are good leaders, only one is needed
 - ☐ Five sessions
 - ☐ Six sessions, if a new club three before charter night and three after
9. Does the Certified Guiding Lion have to send in a report?
 - ☐ Yes, every three months
 - ☐ Yes, only at the end of the two-year term
 - ☐ Only if there are problems with the new club
10. Does the Certified Guiding Lion have to send in a final report?
 - ☐ Yes, this provides a final statement of the club's progress
 - ☐ Only if the club is not working
 - ☐ Only if they haven't sent any reports before

11. Should the Certified Guiding Lion encourage club members and officers to visit other well managed clubs?
 - ☐ No, it could confuse them and give them the wrong ideas
 - ☐ Only after two years of membership
 - ☐ Yes, it's a way of learning
12. When is it recommended to conduct the "Club Officer Training?"
 - ☐ Within the 30 days of the charter application approval or assignment to existing club
 - ☐ Two months after the charter night or assignment to existing club
 - ☐ Only if needed
13. Should the new clubs participate in district activities?
 - ☐ No, it should wait for at least two years
 - ☐ Only in cases of International disasters
 - ☐ Yes, as soon as possible
14. Should a new club have a net growth during its first two years?
 - ☐ No, the new members must first get to know each other before recruiting new members
 - ☐ Yes, it proves that the club is doing well
 - ☐ Only if they lose members
15. Should the Certified Guiding Lion determine where and when the new club holds its meetings?
 - ☐ Yes, of course the Certified Guiding Lion would make the best decision
 - ☐ No, it must be the decision of the new members
 - ☐ It must be held when it is convenient for the Certified Guiding Lion
16. Does the zone chairperson belong to the "Club Officers Mentor Team?"
 - ☐ Yes, he/she does
 - ☐ No, he/she is a different commitment
 - ☐ Only if the governor appoints him/her
17. How long should each session of the Club Officer Training" last?
 - ☐ All day
 - ☐ Minimum of three hours with a coffee break
 - ☐ Each session should last about an hour
18. Should the Certified Guiding Lion explain the fees and dues?
 - ☐ Only after the charter night
 - ☐ Not at the beginning, they may lose interest
 - ☐ Yes, it's an important issue
19. Should the Certified Guiding Lion encourage the club to create a "Membership Recruiting Plan?"
 - ☐ During the second year of the club
 - ☐ Yes, it's one of the club's main objective
 - ☐ Only if the new club is losing members
20. Is increasing meeting attendance an important issue for a new club?
 - ☐ Yes, it's important to keep members involved
 - ☐ In the beginning only the officers must attend
 - ☐ Only after the charter night