

AAYUSH BAGLA
LEO-LION BOARD LIAISON

Aayush Bagla, from Kolkata, India, was appointed by International President Jung-Yul Choi to serve as a Leo-Lion Board Liaison of Lions Clubs International from 2020 through 2021.

Aayush has been an active Leo since joining the Calcutta Park Avenue Leo Club in 2008. He transitioned to a Leo-Lion in 2015 and is currently serving as a member of Calcutta Park Avenue Lions Club.

As a part of the Leo program, he has held a number of offices including club president, district president and international advisory panelist for CA6. He has served as the chairman for All India Leo Schooling and Meet 2014 and as the chairman of the Leo ISAME Forum in 2017. As an ELLI graduate, he has also served as faculty for several Leo institutes and training programs, and was a Young Facilitator for DGE training during the Las Vegas Convention in 2018.

He is the COO of Kaybee International, an official licensee of LCI. He holds double master's degrees in Financial Markets and Investments, and Management from SKEMA Business School, France and US campuses. He is a board member of the J D Birla Institute Alumni Association. He was also selected as one of the top 20 under-18 footballers in India by the Manchester United Soccer Schools and attended a 10-day training camp with the football club in the UK.

Aayush has attended six international conventions and participated in six ISAME Forums, four Africa Forums, three EUROPA Forums and three OSEAL Forums. He is a Melvin Jones Fellow and received the International Leo of the Year award in 2015 and an International President's Leadership Award in 2018.

Leo-Lion Board Liaison Aayush carries on a proud family tradition of Lions service. His father, PDG Suraj Bagla; mother, PMCC Rashmi Bagla; and brother, Past Leo District President Akshit Bagla, have all served with distinction for many years.
